Bilateral Meetings

- Thursday 09:30 - 15:30

Description

SOS Children's Villages arrive in BiH in 1994. The first programs were focused on urgent support in food, medicine and money. Then, SOS Children's and Youth Clubs were established, and already in 1996 started construction of the first SOS Children's Village for children without parental care. Today, taking into account the needs of the community, SOS Children's Village of BiH has the largest number of programs in the region: two SOS Children's Villages in Sarajevo and Gracanica, a Family Support Program at six locations as well as Educational Programs like SOS Kindergarten, The Center for Early Growth and Development, the SOS Resource Centers for Children and Family, the Superbus Mobile Team, the European Volunteer Service and the Youth Program.
